General Comments or Valuable Insight

Today was commodity and commodity credit related buying.

Seemingly everyone either lifted their downside risk or wished to add upside in the Oil service sector at the same time.

Ag & Ag related industrial names were on fire. CAT & DE both need time to regroup after this rally, while AGU, MOS & POT could extend.

In the Biotech arena there are plenty of cheap names for a punt.

INSM, BCRX, ESPR, MNTA, CMRX, CLVS.

Other than the fact that these names are between 3-16 dollars and some down from over 100, I have no opinion as to the fundamentals.

I'm merely commenting on the chart patterns, which look positive.

Do your fundamental homework to see if any make sense.
