EURO...111.00 is the 200DMA matching my yearly pivot. This is an exit zone and a level to look for a bounce on a mid-week low.

Gold		1238	1307

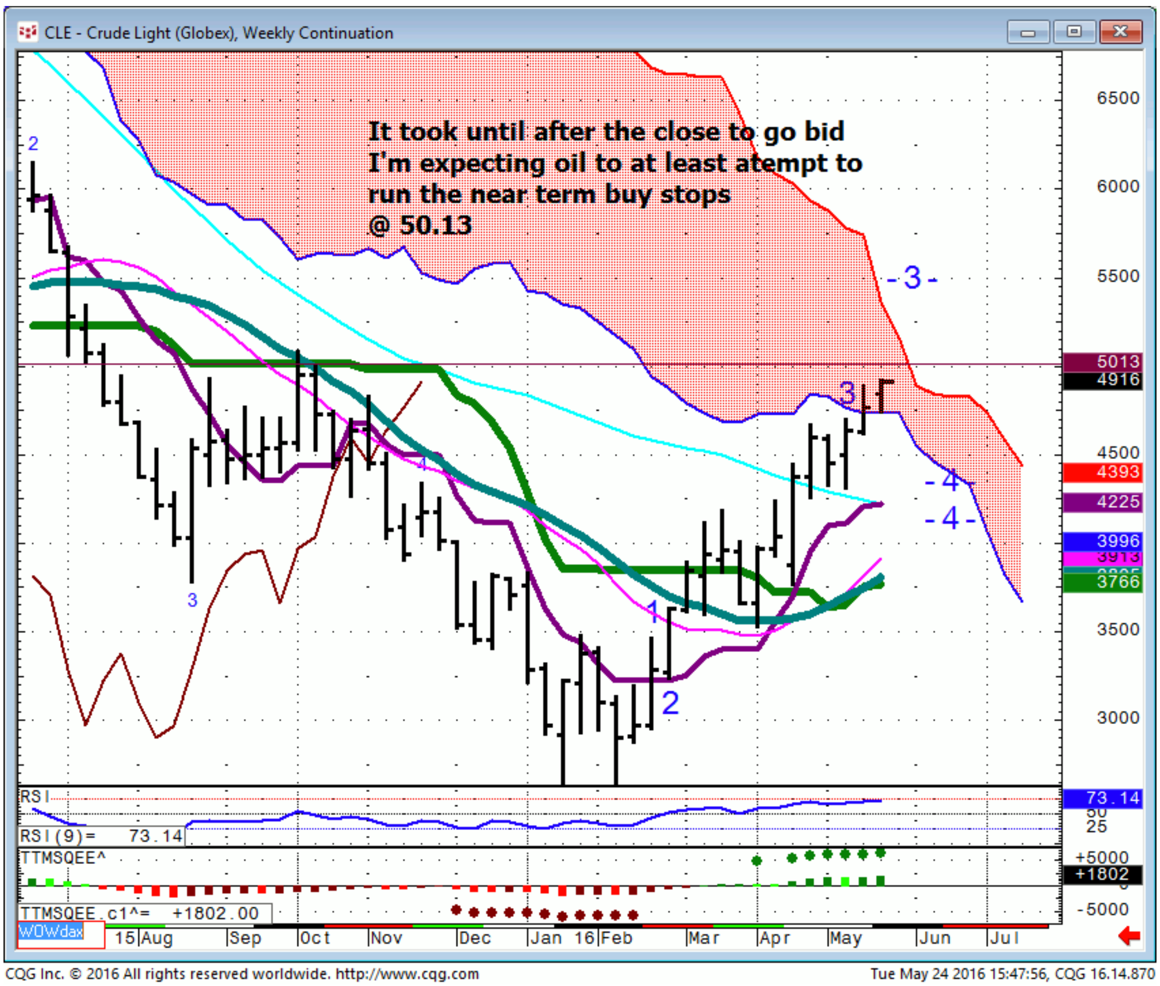
Crude Oil…



Gold…there are bounce levels all the way down. I'm looking for an eventual correction that could go as deep as the 1180 level

General Comments or Valuable Insight

There is nothing bearish about the board.

Is it a short squeeze? Absolutely, however this is how the Lemmings begin to form up for a run.

I'm not sure the Nasd can break into the 4420's again let alone the 200DMA. It is a break that needs to be bought.

I'll write further comments in the A.M.
