General Comments or Valuable Insight

Spu's will need sustained price action over 1995 for some recovery. I know at least a few of you have nibbled at the long side.

I would not want to see it make a new low on the night. Keep a tight leash on it. It still could take a couple of days to find equilibrium.

DAX..closed right on my closing level making it a wait and see for the London open.

DJI,Nasdaq,Spu,Nikkei & SHCOMP are all flashing potential qrtly sell signals.

The DAX, FTSE & Australia's ASX are not.

July Natgas and Copper expire today.

The weather would have me looking for the Natty to rally into its close. Then it's time to take another look since were getting close to my upside target @ 2.91.
