Gilts...130.50 is the weekly close. Sustained price action under 129.70 is needed for profit taking

July Soybeans...

OIL...this is a daily chart in Oil which shows the 200DMA @ 44.42. The all session ADC (Active Daily Continuation) 200DMA is @ 41.07.

It's all in looking at the correct map. Nevertheless sustained price action below 44.40 should lead to another couple of dollars to the downside

General Comments or Valuable Insight

I like to show the different maps like the Nasd 100.
Different charts give you very different looks.

The Pit session Nasd looks like we should have a good pullback while the all session just shows a mildly overbought rally trying to digest.

If there is no profit-taking going into the late U.S. session tomorrow I'd be looking for the Buy stops to be run on Friday.

Sit back and let the indices play out.

My view has been and remains that the names will provide better opportunities than the Indices.
