General Comments or Valuable Insight

The FANG show continues.

With both AAPL & FB up app 10% on their earnings, I see no reason why GOOGL & AMZN would disappoint.

I would be surprised that each was not up 10%.

Last Friday I thought it made sense that we'd rally into early Asia on Thursday I just didn't think that the moves in the individual names would be so prolific.

Spu's are lower on the week with energy a drag.
Nasd is up 53 points and going higher.

I'm looking for the yearly buy stops to be elected in Nasd before this rally can wane.

Today some of the Chipmakers saw a little profit taking.
Sector rotation needs to be monitored

Once again the FED puts on Depends keeping Bernanke's balance channel alive and well.

Low rates with haven flows into U.S. assets will be an ongoing theme.
