General Comments or Valuable Insight

It's a new month. Keep it simple and use Friday's close as your near pivot in everything. Good above/Negative below

Aspen is even pricier than ever. 10 properties on the market in the 30-40 mil range, BBJ not included.

Then there are a myriad of paupers trying to sell their $14-19 Million dollar estates, which of course you should not even look at the brochure if you don't already own a Gulfstream.

Just had a 2 /12 hour flight that turned into a 12-hour odyssey getting home.

Table talk...Charif Souki the ousted chairman of Cheniere is said to be starting a new LNG project in Louisiana that will be using new technologies that will allow the plant to be built in a few years and be generationally more efficient than Cheniere's current facility, which took 10 yrs to complete.

This could be announced tomorrow.

Something to watch as Charif has an index finger I'm sure he'd like to unfurl for Ichan after he fired him.
