General Comments or Valuable Insight

The Ten-year/Bund spread is running the show.

Traders bought German & peripheral debt and on the offer across all U.S. yields looking for a rate rise in the U.S. with continued easy money in Europe.

This sentiment was reflected in the FTSE & DAX, which held Matrix support on a late retest to work higher.

Euro Stoxx 50 held its level on a late retest. It now needs to sustain over 3100 on a weekly basis to continue higher.
