General Comments or Valuable Insight

Don't fight the flow.

Today it was the banks and healthcare names.

We'll see if this continues into next week.

The Euro is set up to flush the Dollar bulls. I'd need to see a couple of closes over 108.25 to believe the signal.

The Mexican peso has been the low volatility directional trade for the past two weeks. USD/MXN would need all new closing weakness under 20 for another push higher in the Peso Futures.
