General Comments or Valuable Insight

There is no change in the Long-term Spu Point & Figure Charts. When and if they turn up I'll write about it.

As of now I'd need to see sustained and closing price action over 2392 (M) for another 40 point wiggle up.

Equity Indices Cash settle tomorrow. I've seen the process end early or take into noon CDT.

There is always something moving and today it was AIRG. I teed this up in the A.M. for the Midday Missive.

Unfortunately for you I was stuck by a bout of senility and never hit the send button.

I like the pattern. Look to buy a retest of the breakout if the opportunity presents itself.
