General Comments or Valuable Insight

There is no change in the Long-term Spu Point & Figure Charts. When and if they turn up I'll write about it.

As of now I'd need to see sustained and closing price action over 2392 (M) for another 40 point wiggle up.

I'm not changing the Spu's. They could very well fill out the 25X3 P&F back to the downside into the 2360's.

Points of interest.

Equity Bond (Spu's & Nasd 100) spreads are showing signs of rolling over.

AAPL has a potential pattern that could spillover and cause profit taking in other names.

Bund, by holding 159.00, is giving a bid to treasuries.

You have to be in risk management mode going into qtr. end.

We've come along way in the indices and I believe it will be a name game for the next couple of weeks.

AIRG is a perfect example. " Even a blind squirrel finds a nut on occasion."
