General Comments or Valuable Insight

I could be at this all night.

All the charts look the same from NFLX,GOOGL, AMZN et. al.

Today was a big time high, one that will need a lot of time to repair the price destruction.

The last time I saw a high like this put in on a Tuesday was sometime in 1998-99.

Per usual the cheerleaders were selling puts and getting long today.

With the major indices now lower on the month you need to be very selective in what you do.

The denier in chief is reaping what he has sowed. Today was the result.

I'm not in any hurry to buy anything until this pattern plays out.
