Prudential was a buy off my pattern recognition software.
It traded weak after the initial rally before nine.
I've seen a lot of names do this and then rip.
Those were momentum names.
If Pru does not hold out after payrolls...lose it!

General Comments or Valuable Insight

It’s the end of the week and my mind is a little toasty.

Spu’s have yet to confirm another leg up while the Spreads say yes.

Ten year Futures need to trade and remain under 125.00 close for lower. I would consider this price positive the Indices.

The board is an algorithmic chop shop.

Nasd 100 Futures would need a 5585 print for a reversal on the longer-term point & figure.

Spu’s would need a 2370 print for a reversal on the medium-term point & figure.

Think about it! Oil is down 10% and the Indices are unchanged.

THE PAYROLL MANTRA IS ALWAYS THE SAME.
FOLLOW THE BONDS.

I’m not handicapping tomorrow’s race.
