General Comments or Valuable Insight

The game plan was to utilize 2428 Spu to reload on risk.

Two weeks ago I did not believe the Nasd 100 & DJI would hit their macro support levels when the Spu's would reach 2428.

I was keying off the Spu's for they had the best definable levels off the Long term P&F matching the macro support.

You need to believe in the macro levels. They work.

This volatility event is over. I'm looking for smaller ranges going into mid-week
