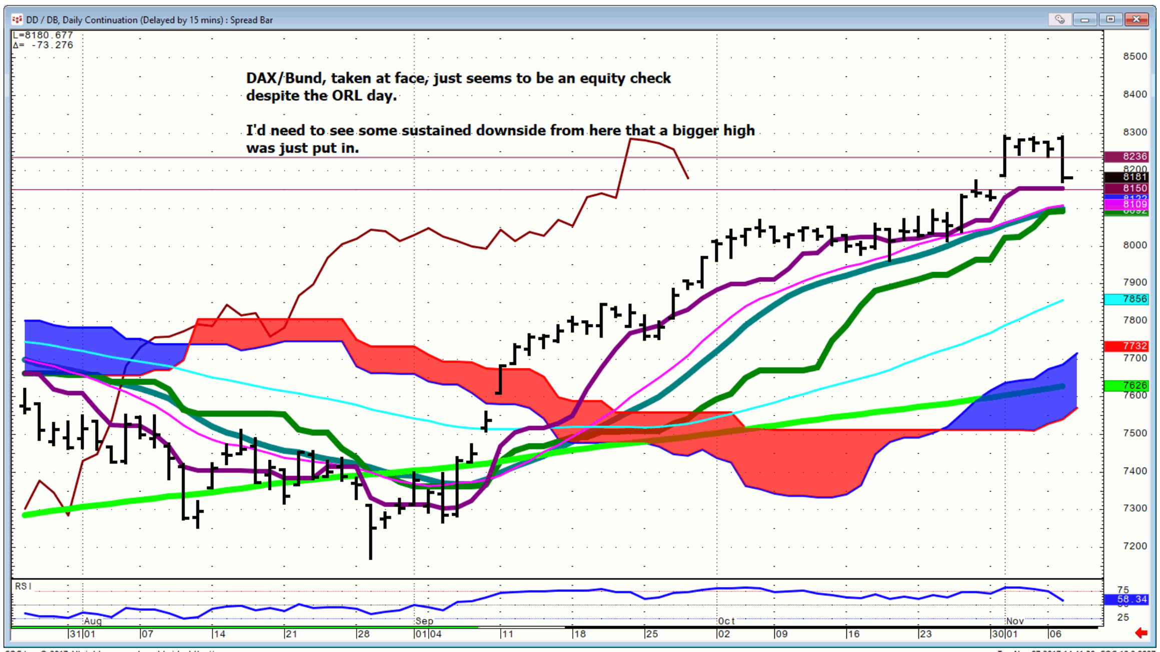
DAX/Bund...



DD / DB, Daily Continuation (Delayed by 15 mins) : Spread Bar
L=8180.677
Δ= -73.276
DAX/Bund, taken at face, just seems to be an equity check despite the ORL day.
I'd need to see some sustained downside from here that a bigger high was just put in.

General Comments or Valuable Insight

To our new members, please click on the glossary link below to understand about gaps and outside reversal levels.

I go into detail how to read the OR levels.

2582.30 Spu was today's ORL. The later it got in the day with the Spu's above the ORL the less of a chance the bears had to win.

CAT,DE & Honeywell were bought against pretty much everything.

Early in the day it looked as though the Transports (IYT) Would hold and lead the Indices higher. They puked and I stopped watching the screen.

Bunds, BTP's, Oats & Bonos have gone vertical. It was the lagging Gilts that put in an ORH.

Gilts alone seem reasonable.

When you can't figure out the rotation or get on the favored names, just shut it down.
