General Comments or Valuable Insight

The good news is that 2-way trade is back for short-term traders.

The bad news is that those complacent buy and hold investors are going to be reaching for their Prilosec.

The S&P Point & Figure has me looking for a lower move into the 26 teens tomorrow.

The 50X3 has to be monitored for I'm expecting it to fill out the P&F to the downside.

The risk is that the 50X3 P&F rolls over.

FANG names rallied into resistance with the Nasd 100.

I'm looking for weakness into tomorrow.

If the Puke goes into the close tomorrow I'll take a look at a long for a bounce depending on the Point & Figures.

It will be a lemming effect trade tomorrow.
